

BOURNES GREEN POST

CHILDREN TRAINED TO BE BRILLIANT ROMAN SOLDIERS

Yesterday morning two mighty soldiers called Caius and Marcus came to BGS and trained to be in the great Roman battle. When they arrived they needed a slave so they captured a young boy called Alex. They put a chain around his neck. The children were taught to march into battle. Four lucky children were chosen to be the roman soldiers.

Then they put on real roman army clothes and they also had a helmet and they could have a real shield. With the shields they were told to make a tortoise. The soldiers hurled bean bags at the enormous tortoise that they had made. In the afternoon they taught the children some games and they were brilliant at the roman game but lucky Isabel beat them and Miss Rush beat Isabel. Later they taught them another game called knucklebones and nobody could do it except for Mrs Booth and Mrs Cornelius. It was so funny when Mrs Booth kept on dropping them. At the end of the day they showed the children weapons that they used in the roman days.
